Yes, I tackled this book on running, and found it actually very easy to read, plan and execute a program that worked for me. Chapters on stretching, diet were essential to help me progress to where I wanted to be. In fact, this book is now one of my goto references if I'm thinking of talking an up coming race or want to change up my training.

Am looking for a good log book to log runs, swims, cycles, gym classes and anything else I end up doing. Prefer paper to computer as I spend large chunks of the day managing data on a computer and don't always fancy it of an evening. Needs to be highly flexible due to the variety of activities I want to record.
