Bollywod Travels: Culture, Diaspora and Border Crossings :: In Bollywod Travels, Rajinder Dudrah moves the conversation forward, examining the intersections among the way recent Hindi cinema represents travel, border crossing, and diaspora; the way the cinema itself crosses geographic and cultural borders; and the way its audiences are reflected in and reflect on this new brand of narrative. Through the idea of travel, Dudrah has identified a major shift in the last half-decade of popular Hindi cinema that certainly deserves critical attention.
