Giving thanks is a worthwhile, spiritual practice. When we approach each day with thanksgiving and gratitude, our hearts and souls feel lighter. When we ask God to help us to be more giving, we can open up our true potential and increase the positive impact we can make on the world. There are two parts to this word, however, thanks and giving. The word thanks is a noun and giving is a verb.

The best place to see Jesus showing us the way is in the upper room where he "took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me" (Luke 22:19).

How Can We Give Thanks in All Circumstances? | Desiring God

JUNE 12. The word "thanksgiving" can be defined as the expression of gratitude, especially to almighty God. One of the great commandments is to give thanks to God, for all he has done for us. According to Psalm 100:4 we are to "enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his Courts with praise; be thankful unto him, and bless his name".
