The more time you take to practice for your test, the more familiar you will become with the test's format. Taking time to practice will also help you be more ready, and because of that, you will be less likely to panic. Lastly, practicing can give you an opportunity to find, and get rid of any bad habits, which often lead to errors. For best results, take the practice tests under the same realistic testing conditions, as you would the real one.
