Prison Stories was an excellent read. Seth Ferranti makes you feel like your there in the jail yard experiencing the events. The book opened my eyes to the corruption from within the system. Hopefully one day the system will change to a place that actually rehabs people and doesn't just keep them in a warehouse.

Prison Stories - Kindle edition by Ferranti, Seth ...
The story of Ferranti's life behind bars is interesting, to say the least, as threats from correction officers and rival inmates force him to make difficult (and often regrettable) choices to stay alive and build his rep. Plenty of blood is shed in this intense record of the harsh realities of the penal system.
