Have had the Orion and Orion II for about 3-4 years but today just had to write a review. Just worked VP6D on 15m in a pile up. Had no panadapter open just used the radio! Set up main VFO on VP6D and then set up split and just kept listening for the station just worked on the sub VFO. On this Orion that is the RX366 by the way. I had head phones on with main VFO in my left ear and the sub in ...
